Register Now for NETA's PowerTest 2017 Trade Show and PowerBash, Highlights of the Premier Electrical Power Systems Professionals Event

NETA marks its 45th anniversary with PowerBash reception, a special awards night, and the Trade Show, the largest gathering of electrical maintenance and testing professionals in the industry.

Portage, Michigan, December 8, 2016 – Electrical power systems professionals and industry leaders will converge at the PowerTest 2017 Trade Show and PowerBash reception on Tuesday, February 28, 2017, in Anaheim, California. The Trade Show and PowerBash — sponsored by NETA, the InterNational Electrical Testing Association — are highlights of this week-long, largest North America gathering of professionals involved in the specifying, maintenance, and testing of electrical power systems.

More than 1,000 participants will gather February 27- March 3, 2017, at the Disneyland Hotel in Anaheim, California for PowerTest 2017. The PowerTest Trade Show, Tuesday, February 28, 2017, from noon to 5:30 PM, is free to conference attendees as well as other local power systems professionals. All participants enjoy a complimentary lunch and engage with more than 100 top-tier electrical power vendors who share a mission for delivering safety and reliability-based solutions to everyday challenges.

Trade Show attendees will have the opportunity to:

- Engage with more than 85 exhibitors, including suppliers and manufacturers displaying state-of-the-art technology
- Learn about product innovations and high-demand services
- Network with industry leaders and colleagues
- Learn from 12 Spotlight Stage presentations detailing the trends, industry insights, and most sought after products and services
- Enjoy a complimentary, buffet-style lunch and refreshments

Following the Trade Show, the PowerBash reception celebrates NETA's 45th anniversary and will acknowledge all who have helped the association serve the industry. Scheduled for 7:00 PM to 10:00 P.M., Tuesday, February 28, 2017, PowerBash features an evening of Southern California charm while attendees mix and mingle to musical entertainment. The Outstanding Achievement and Alliance Recognition Awards will be presented along with PowerTest 2017 recognition for best papers, hospitality suites, and exhibitors.

PowerBash requires a separate registration. The cost is $25.
